

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Amen I say to you,
until heaven and earth pass away,
not the smallest letter or the smallest part of a letter will pass from the law.

Affair of the Heart: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus tells us in the Gospel this week that he has come not to abolish but to “fulfill” the Law of Moses and the teachings of the prophets.

His Gospel reveals the deeper meaning and purpose of the Ten Commandments and the moral Law of the Old Testament. But his Gospel also transcends the Law. He demands a morality far greater than that accomplished by the most pious of Jews, the scribes and Pharisees.

Outward observance of the Law is not enough. It is not enough that we do not murder, commit adultery, divorce, or lie.

The law of the new covenant is a law that God writes on the heart. The heart is the seat of our motivations, the place from which our words and actions proceed.

Jesus this week calls us to train our hearts, to master our passions and emotions. And Jesus demands the full obedience of our hearts. He calls us to love God with all our hearts, and to do his will from the heart.

God never asks more of us than we are capable. That is the message of this week’s First Reading. It is up to us to choose life over death, to choose the waters of eternal life over the fires of ungodliness and sin.

By his life, death, and resurrection, Jesus has shown us that it is possible to keep his commandments. In baptism, he has given us his Spirit that his Law might be fulfilled in us.

The wisdom of the Gospel surpasses all the wisdom of this age that is passing away, St. Paul tells us in the Epistle. The revelation of this wisdom fulfills God’s plan from before all ages.

Let us trust in this wisdom, and live by his Kingdom law.

As we do in this week’s Psalm, let us pray that we grow in being better able to live his Gospel, and to seek the Father with all our heart.

Serie de Conversaciones: A partir de Lunes el 13 de Febrero, el Padre Steven dirigirá una serie de conversaciones en español sobre la Sagrada Escritura y la Sagrada Tradición. Las conversaciones serán cada Lunes por la noche de 7 pm - 8 pm y concluirán el Lunes 27 de Marzo. Las conversaciones tendrán lugar en la Iglesia. Esperamos verlos allí!

St. Vincent De Paul: In the Gospel Jesus says: “Whoever fulfills and teaches these commands shall be great in the kingdom of God.” By your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you indeed put your faith into action as you fulfill the commands of Jesus.

Cosas del corazón: Scott Hahn reflexiona sobre el 6o domingo de tiempo ordinario

Jesús nos dice en el Evangelio de esta semana que no ha venido a abolir sino a cumplir la ley de Moisés y las enseñanzas de los profetas.

Su evangelio revela el sentido más profundo de los Diez Mandamientos y la Ley del Antiguo Testamento. Pero su Evangelio trasciende la Ley. Exige una moralidad más grande que la vivida por los judíos más estrictos, los fariseos y los escribas.

La observancia externa de la Ley no es suficiente. No basta que no matemos, no cometamos adulterio, divorcio, que no mintamos.

La ley de la nueva alianza es una ley que Dios escribe en el Corazón. El Corazón es la sede de nuestras motivaciones, el lugar de donde proceden todas nuestras palabras y acciones.

Jesús nos llama a entrenar en nuestro Corazón, a dominar nuestras pasiones y emociones. Y Él exige la plena obediencia de nuestros corazones. Nos llama a amar a Dios con todo nuestro Corazón y hacer su voluntad.

Dios nunca nos pide nada más allá de nuestras capacidades. Esto es el mensaje de la primera lectura. Es preciso escoger la vida sobre la muerte, las aguas de la vida eterna sobre los fuegos de impiedad y pecado.

Por su vida, muerte y resurrección, Jesús nos ha mostrado que es posible cumplir sus mandatos. En el bautismo, Él nos ha dado su Espíritu para que su Ley pueda cumplirse en nosotros.

La sabiduría del Evangelio sobrepasa toda la sabiduría de este mundo que está pasando, como San Pablo nos dice en la epístola. La revelación de esta sabiduría cumple el plan de Dios de todo el tiempo.

Confiemos en esta sabiduría y vivamos por la ley de su Reino.

Como hemos hecho en el salmo de hoy, oremos para que vivamos mejor su evangelio y busquemos al Padre con todo nuestro Corazón.

CHOICE: "If you choose you can keep the commandments," Sirach tells us. God "has set before you fire and water; to whichever you choose, stretch forth your hand" (Sirach 15:15, 16). This is a great mystery: God does not control us so completely that we cannot choose our own path. We have certain boundaries, of course, but no one but we can choose our way within those boundaries. In today's reading from Matthew's Gospel, Jesus reminds us of our freedom and our responsibility for our lives. He calls us to look beyond the words of the commandments, all the way to their meaning. Look beyond the adultery to the selfishness that poisons our love. Look beyond the murder to the anger that eats away at our compassion. Look beyond the perjured testimony to the lies and deception that drive our behavior. Our vocation is to choose life for ourselves, and to choose a path through our part of the world that helps make life possible and more abundant for others as well. Copyright (c) J. S. Texas Catholic Advocacy Day 2017!!!

1. Advocacy Day 2017 is a one day event that will take place on Tuesday April 4th, 2017 @ the Texas Capitol in Austin. Every other year, Catholics from all over Texas, under the leadership of our Bishops, gather at the Texas Capitol... we Pray, we Rally, we Advocate and ultimately we are witnesses to our faith.

Abraham Lincoln said that Democracy is the power of the people, by the people and for the people. So for the system to work it is important for "The People" to actually participate. Advocacy day is the opportunity to exercise your rights as citizens and most importantly for our mission as disciples of Jesus Christ, as Catholics, missionary disciples, Advocacy Day is an opportunity to live our moral obligation of defending human dignity in all its stages and pursue the common good in our society... The election is over. The most important part begins.

2. So what better initiative than gathering as one Church to exercise our rights and duties as citizens and Catholics. We will be supporting our Catholic Legislative Agenda for the 85th Texas Legislative Session. It is divided in six different topics, united by an underlying message focused on strengthening our families.

- Protecting Human Life.
- Children and Families.
- Health and Human Services.
- Justice for Immigrants.
- Protecting the Poor and the Vulnerable.
- Criminal Justice.

This agenda reflects the society in which we live and there is no one out there, in a parish, ministry or society at large that is not affected in one way or another by these issues. As any other time in history, the Church steps up and guides us with the same message of love of God and love of Neighbor.

3. Advocacy Day 2015 was a success, the Archdiocese committed to taking 500 people and reached the goal. In 2013 we had 300 people. Due to our success in 2015, this time we have committed to taking 700 people.

We will have a training Session at St. Luke's on Saturday, January 21 @ 9 am at the Parish Hall and at Saint Pius X on Saturday January 28th @ 9 am.
