The Kingdom Remains: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Seventh Sunday of Easter:

Today's First Reading begins by giving us a time frame the events take place during the days between Christ's Ascension and Pentecost. We're at the same point in our liturgical year. On Thursday we celebrated His being taken up in glory, and next Sunday we will celebrate His sending of the Spirit upon the Church.

Jesus' prayer in the Gospel today also captures the mood of departure and the anticipation. He is telling us today how it will be when He is no longer in the world. By His Ascension, the Lord has established His throne in heaven, as we sing in today's Psalm. His kingdom is His Church, which continues His mission on earth.

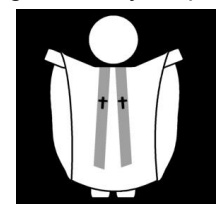

Jesus fashioned His kingdom as a new Jerusalem, and a new house of David. He entrusted this kingdom to His Twelve Apostles, who were to preside at the Eucharistic table, and to rule with Him over the restored twelve tribes of Israel.

The Twelve Apostles symbolize the twelve tribes and hence the fulfillment of God's plan for Israel. That's why it is crucial to replace Judas so that the Church in its fullness receives the Spirit at Pentecost.

Peter's leadership of the Apostles is another key element of the Church as it is depicted today. Notice that Peter is unquestionably in control, interpreting the Scriptures, deciding a course of action, even defining the nature of the apostolic ministry.

No one has ever seen God, as we hear in today's Epistle. Yet, through the Church founded on His apostles, the witnesses to the resurrection, the world will come to know and believe in God's love, that He sent His Son to be our savior.

Through the Church, Jesus' pledge still comes to us that if we love, God will remain with us in our trials and protects us from the evil one. By His word of truth He will help us grow in holiness, the perfection of love.

Congratulations to Fr. Steven Gamez as he celebrates his 10th Anniversary of Ordination to the Sacred Priesthood of our Lord Jesus Christ on Thursday, May 17th. May God Bless You Always Fr. Steven!

El Reino permanece: Scott Hahn reflexiona sobre el 7º Domingo de Pascua:

La primera lectura de hoy está enmarcada en los acontecimientos que suceden entre los días después de la Ascensión del Señor y Pentecostés. Estamos en el mismo punto en el calendario litúrgico. Este jueves celebramos la Ascensión del Señor en gloria y el otro domingo celebraremos el envío del Espíritu Santo sobre la Iglesia.

La oración de Jesús que escuchamos en el evangelio expresa sentimientos de despedida y a la vez de espera de Pentecostés. Nos dice cómo serán las cosas cuando él ya no esté físicamente entre nosotros. Por su Ascensión, el Señor está sentado en su trono en el Cielo, como menciona el salmo

Jesús ha configurado su Reino como una Nueva Jerusalén y como una nueva casa de David. Él entregó este reino a los apóstoles, quienes presidirán la mesa Eucarística y que "juzgarán a las doce tribus de Israel".

Los doce apóstoles simbolizan las doce tribus y, por tanto, cumplen el plan de Dios para Israel. Por esto era imprescindible sustituir a Judas Iscariote, de modo que la Iglesia en plenitud recibiera el Espíritu Santo en Pentecostés.

El liderazgo de San Pedro es otro elemento clave en la Iglesia, destacado en estas lecturas dominicales. Muestran a Pedro ejerciendo una autoridad incuestionable. Él interpreta las escrituras, él decide como actuar;

"A Dios nadie le ha visto nunca" dice la Epístola de este domingo. Sin embargo, a través de la Iglesia fundada sobre los apóstoles, testigos de la resurrección, el mundo conocerá y creará en el amor de Dios, quien envió a su Hijo para ser Nuestro Salvador.

Por medio de la Iglesia, la promesa de Jesús llega hasta nosotros: Si amamos, Dios estará con nosotros en nuestras pruebas y nos protegerá del Maligno. Con su Palabra de verdad, nos ayudará crecer en santidad, a alcanzar la perfección en el amor.

St. Vincent de Paul

Today as we celebrate the feast of the Ascension we are reminded that Christ's saving work on earth continues through his disciples...and now through us. When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and joy into our hearts, into our lives and into the hearts of those who are poor.

A Prayer for Mothers

O Lord, let us pray for every Mother for each one has a common goal to love and train Your children, Their bodies, minds, and souls.

We pray for Mom's who've just begun whose hearts are filled with love.

But feel a little fearful

Please guide them from above.

For moms who choose to stay at home

We pray you'll bless their life

Their busy days, with little praise.

please bless their sacrifice.

Lord, please bless the single moms who raise their children alone.

When they feel discouraged and lonely.

May your loving hearts be their home.

And bless the special mothers who've embraced another's child And adopted them as family. We know that Heaven smiles.

Every Mother needs your help Friends, aunts, and grandmas, too.

To help raise up Godly children Who will love and follow You.

Amen.

Happy Mother's Day!

Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God
45th World Day Of Peace

Homily of His Holiness Benedict XVI
Vatican Basilica, Sunday 1st January 2012

Mary is the mother and model of the Church. Who receives the divine word in faith and offers herself to God as the "good soil" in which he can continue to accomplish his mystery of salvation. The Church also participates in the mystery of divine motherhood, through preaching, which sows the seed of the Gospel throughout the world, and through the sacraments, which communicate grace and divine life to men. The church exercises her motherhood especially in the sacrament of Baptism, when she generates God's children from water and the Holy Spirit, who cries out in each of them: Abba, Father!" (gal 4:6). Like Mary, the Church is the mediator of God's blessing for the world: she receives it in receiving Jesus and she transmits it in bearing Jesus. He is the mercy and the peace that the world, of itself, cannot give, and which it needs always, at least as much as bread. Monday, May 21st, for the first time the feast of Mary the Mother of the Church will be celebrated at 12 p.m.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

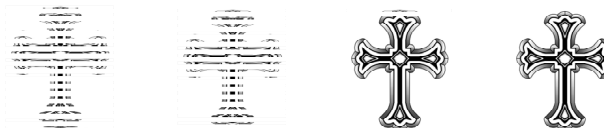

In Ireland and the United Kingdom, Mother's Day is over. "Mothering Sunday" was on the Fourth Sunday of Lent. Long ago, people were freed from work to travel on this day to the parish where they were baptized, their "Mother Church." Often, people were reunited with their mothers on this day. Employers would release their workers and servants for this visit. The American celebration, while based on this custom, really has to do with an anti-war movement of mothers in Civil War times. They crusaded for better sanitary conditions for their sons. When President Wilson instituted the first Mother's Day in 1912, it was a day to fly the flag in honor of mothers whose children had died in battle. Knowing the tradition is a good balance to our celebration today. We can enfold in prayer the mothers who have suffered the loss of their children in war.

Solemnidad de Maria, Madre de Dios
45°Día Mundial de Paz
Homilía de su Santidad Benedicto XVI
Basílica del Vaticano
Domingo, 1 de Enero 2012

María es madre y modelo de la Iglesia, que acoga en la fe la Palabra divina y se ofrece a Dios como “tierra fecunda” en la que él puede seguir cumpliendo su misterio de salvación. También la iglesia participa en el misterio de la meternidad divina mediante la predicación, que siembra por el mundo la semilla del Evangelio, y mediante los sacramentos, que comunican a los hombres la gracia y la vida divina. La iglesia vive de modo particular esta maternidad en el sacramento del Bautismo, cuando engendra hijos de Dios por el agua y el Espíritu Santo, el cual exclama uno de ellos: “Abbá, Padre” (Ga 4,6). La Iglesia, al igual que María, es mediadora de la bendición de Dios para el mundo: la recibe acogiendo a Jesús y la transmite llevando a Jesús. Él es la misericordia y la paz que el mundo por sí mismo no se puede dar y que necesita tanto o más que el pan.

Lunes, 21 de Mayo, Por primera vez se celebrara la Fiesta de Maria la Madre de la Iglesia a las 12 medio día.

Una oración para las madres

Oh Señor, recemos por cada Madre porque cada una tiene un objetivo común amar y entrenar a tus hijos, en cuerpo, mente y alma.

Oramos por la mamá que acaba de comenzar cuyos corazones están llenos de amor. Pero siente un poco de miedo Por favor guíalas desde arriba.

Para las mamás que eligen quedarse en casa Oramos para que bendigas su vida Sus días ocupados, y con pocos elogios. por favor bendice su sacrificio.

Señor, por favor bendice a las madres solteras que crían a sus hijos solas Cuando se sienten desanimadas y solas. Que sus corazones amorosos sean su hogar.

Y bendiga a las madres especiales quien ha abrazado el hijo de otro Y los adoptó como familia. Sabemos que el Cielo les sonrío.

Cada madre necesita tu ayuda Amigas, tías y abuelas también. Para ayudar a levantar a niños divinos ¿Quién te amará y te seguirá? Amén.

San Vicente de Paul

Hoy, que celebramos la fiesta de la Ascensión, se nos recuerda que la obra salvadora de Cristo en la tierra continúa a través de sus discípulos ... y ahora a través de nosotros. Cuando damos a los pobres, Dios derrama su amor, paz y alegría en nuestros corazones, en nuestras vidas y en los corazones de los pobres.
