St. Rose of Lima Parish Purpose/Mission

Our sacred purpose at St. Rose of Lima Parish is to love and know Christ, to practice His teachings as revealed to His bride the Church in Sacred Scripture and Sacred Tradition. As Christ loves His bride, we will love one another in word and deed, perform works of mercy and live out compassionate forgiveness. We will welcome all to the house of our Father, and as a community of faith we will joyfully assist one another in attaining the promises of eternal life through our sharing as members of the One Body and the Sacramental Life.

Scott Hahn Reflections

Seeking the Lost: Scott Hahn Reflects on the 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time:

The episode in today's First Reading has been called "Israel's original sin." Freed from bondage, born as a people of God in the covenant at Sinai, Israel turned aside from His ways, fell to worshipping a golden calf.

Moses implores God's mercy, as Jesus will later intercede for the whole human race, as He still pleads for sinners at God's right hand and through the ministry of the Church.

Israel's sin is the sin of the world. It is your sin and mine. Ransomed from death and made His children in Baptism, we fall prey to the idols of this world. We remain a "stiff-necked people," resisting His will for us like an ox refuses the plowman's yoke.

Like Israel, in our sin we push God away, reject our divine sonship. Once He called us "my people". But our sin makes us "no people," people He should, in justice, disown.

Yet in His mercy, He is faithful to the covenant He swore by His own self in Jesus. In Jesus, God comes to Israel and to each of us, as a shepherd to seek the lost, to carry us back to the heavenly feast, the perpetual heritage promised long ago to Abraham's children.

"Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners," Paul cries in today's Epistle. These are the happiest words the world has ever known. Because of Jesus, as Paul himself can testify, even the blasphemer and persecutor can seek His mercy.

As the sinners do in today's Gospel, we draw near to listen to Him. In this Eucharist, we bring Him the acceptable sacrifice we sing of in today's Psalm, our hearts, humbled and contrite.

In the company of His angels and saints, we rejoice that He has wiped out our offense, celebrate with Him, that we have turned from the evil way that we might live.

Reflexiones de Scott Hahn

Buscando a los perdidos: Scott Hahn refleja sobre el 24o domingo de tiempo ordinario

El episodio de la primera lectura del domingo ha sido llamado "el pecado original de Israel". Liberado de la esclavitud, nacido como pueblo de Dios en la Alianza del Sinaí, Israel se apartó de sus caminos y cayó al adorar un becerro de oro.

Moisés implora la misericordia de Dios, como Jesús intercederá después por toda la raza humana; como ahora, sentado a la derecha del Padre, aboga por los pecadores mediante el ministerio de la Iglesia.

El pecado de Israel es el pecado del mundo. Es tu pecado y el mío. Aunque hemos sido rescatados de la muerte y convertidos en sus hijos por el Bautismo, caemos en las trampas de los ídolos de este mundo. Seguimos siendo un pueblo "de dura cerviz" que se resiste a su Voluntad, como un buey rechaza la yunta del labrador.

Como Israel, en nuestro pecado intentamos alejar a Dios, rechazamos nuestra filiación divina. Antes, Él nos había llamado "mi pueblo". Pero nuestro pecado nos hace "no pueblo", pueblo que Él en justicia debería repudiar.

Sin embargo Dios, por su misericordia, es fiel a la alianza que juró por Sí mismo en Jesús. En Él, Dios viene a Israel y a cada uno de nosotros, como pastor que busca los que se han perdido, para conducirnos de vuelta al banquete celestial, a la herencia perpetua prometida mucho tiempo atrás a los hijos de Abraham.

"Cristo Jesús vino al mundo para salvar a los pecadores", grita Pablo en la epístola del domingo. Esas son las palabras más felices que el mundo ha conocido jamás. Por Jesús, como Pablo mismo testimonia, incluso el blasfemo y persecutor pueden buscar misericordia.

Como los pecadores del Evangelio de esta semana, nos acercamos a Jesús para escucharle. En esta Eucaristía le traemos el sacrificio agradable del que cantamos en el salmo de hoy: nuestros corazón contrito y humillado.

En la compañía de sus ángeles y santos, nos alegramos porque ha borrado nuestras ofensas; celebramos con Él que hemos regresado del camino malvado para que pudiéramos vivir.

Pray For Peace...

St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that the shepherd rejoices when he finds one lost sheep. The story tells us that nothing and no one is insignificant to God who is compassionate and loving to all. Is there a neighbor or friend of yours who is in temporary need because of a loss of a job or an illness? Please leave a message for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul...we want to help!

Make a Joyful Noise Unto The Lord

The 8 AM Choir is still in need of singers and musicians! Perhaps God is calling you to increase your faith in action in this special way. If you are interested, please contact Emily at (276) 806-0790.

Prayer for Catechists

O God, our Heavenly Father, you have given us the gift of these catechists to be heralds of the Gospel to our parish family. We lift them up to you in thanksgiving and intercede for them concerning their hopes and needs. May we be attentive to the presence of your Word in them, a Word that lifts up and affirms, calls forth and challenges, is compassionate and consoles. We pray that our parish family will always be blessed with those who have responded to the call to share in Christ's prophetic mission as catechists. May we too be open to the universal call to service that Christ addresses to all of his disciples, contributing our gifts to the communion of faith, the Church. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.
